职业前景

毕业生应能在本地或海外就业市场及国际企业中具有竞争优势。中国的一带一路倡议现正发展成为一个由跨国企业、中国企业以及新旧丝绸之路贸易路线沿线的许多国家政府共同牵头的全球性事业。这将会在丝绸之路沿线和非沿线国家产生出大量一带一路专业职位和对国际关系知识和技能的需求。政府、企业、甚至非政府组织以及媒体和教育行业都将急需了解地缘政治与地缘经济趋势及转向变化的分析人员与专才。本课程是香港及海外学术机构首个开设的同类课程。

Career Prospects

Graduates should be able to compete with advantages in local and overseas job markets and in international ventures. The Belt and Road Initiative of China is now evolving into an international enterprise led by multinational and Chinese enterprises as well as many national governments along the various trade routes of the old and new Silk Road. There will be a huge demand for professionals with adequate knowledge and skill background in the international relations of China and other countries in the context of the Chinese Belt and Road Initiative and its reactions from countries along and outside the Silk Road routes. There will also be an urgent need for analysts and experts who are knowledgeable about the trends and shifts in geopolitics and geoeconomics for governments, corporations and even non-government organisations as well as media and education institutions. This Programme is the first of its kind to be offered by an academic institution in Hong Kong and overseas.

自2013年习近平主席提出一带一路倡议以来，我一直是一带一路的积极投资者和经

营者。当我从陈文鸿教授那儿得知香港珠海学院将开设全球首个以一带一路为中心的课程时，我便报读以提高自己的工作知识。课程的必修课和选修课内容广泛，包罗万象。我们可以了解中东及其石油政治；巴基斯坦及其港口发展；俄罗斯、东欧及其西方邻国的关系。更有趣的是，教师队伍大部分是来自乌克兰、巴基斯坦和伊朗的非盎撒人，为学生提供了关于一带一路的不同视角。这使得香港珠海学院脱颖而出，成为香港高等教育的“改革者”。我向所有认同一带一路发展价值的人推荐这个硕士课程。最后但同样重要的是，我与我的儿子同年毕业，这可能是香港珠海学院的标志性事件。

Mr. Joseph CHAN
Graduate of 2021

I have been an active Belt & Road investor and operator since it was initiated by President Xi Jinping in 2013. When I learned from Professor Thomas Chan that Hong Kong Chu Hai College was to offer the world's first ever Belt & Road centric programme I enrolled to it to enhance my work knowledge. The compulsory and elective courses in the programme were wide and embracing. We could learn about the Middle East and its oil politics; Pakistan and her ports development; relationship of Russia, Eastern Europe and their western neighbours. More interestingly was that the teaching faculty was majority lead by non-Anglo-Saxon professors from Ukraine, Pakistan and Iran, providing students with a different perspective on Belt & Road. This made Hong Kong Chu Hai College standing out as a "reformer" in the tertiary education in Hong Kong. I recommend this Master programme to anyone who shares the value of Belt & Road development. Last but not least my son graduated on the same year with me which is probably iconic to Hong Kong Chu Hai College.

Mr. Jameson LIE
Graduate of 2021

My bachelor degree was in design and I was graduated in 2020. Being a fresh graduate, I hoped to engage myself into different field. Indeed, the Belt and Road Initiative is a vital global development program that is rapidly gaining attention around the world while this is the only programme that focused on this topic. As a participant in the programme, I had an exceptional learning experience that was both informative and engaging. The programme was well-designed and comprehensive, providing a deep understanding of the Belt and Road Initiative's history, objectives, and impact on the global economic and politic development. The teachers were highly experienced and knowledgeable in their respective fields, and they provided valuable insights that helped me better comprehend the complexities of the Belt and Road Initiative. Their engaging lectures and discussions helped me gain a thorough understanding of the programme's economic, political, and social implications. This programme has been an excellent learning experience, giving me insights that I can apply in my personal and professional life. It has enhanced my knowledge and understanding of the Belt and Road Initiative and I am glad to be participated in this programme.
